

(Please fill in this form and return)

There is no charge for publishing anniversary announcements, but there are a few simple rules that should be followed:

1. Be sure all names are complete: Two initials or one first name (John Doe or J.D. Doe).

2. Stories will be published as soon after submission as space permits. No specific day of publication can be assured.

3. Because of space limitations, we may not be able to use all the information asked for below.
